Port Arthur Shipping Shows Million Gain In March

PORT ARTHUR'S barometer of trade conditions bolted a few notches in March when a million dollar increase in shipping entering and clearing from this port was shown in the reports of the customs collections.

In the export column for the Sabine district more than $1,500,000 gain is shown in March's figures over those of February, $5,932,776 worth of exports going out last month against $4,389,473 in February.

Port Arthur's share of exports for the past month went to $4,123,500 with Beaumont second, sending out $1,520,843. Sabine ranked third with $170,531 and Orange fourth with $118,482.

In imports Port Arthur had $772,771 against $391 for Beaumont the district's values being $773,162, Orange and Sabine being credited with nothing.

In March 35 American vessels entered bringing 99,877, 30 domestic vessels clearing taking out 87,256 tons. Carrying 34,446 tons 18 foreign vessels entered and 19 foreigners cleared taking 53,426 tons.

Among the countries traded with according to the customs reports were France, Germany, Netherlands, England, Mexico, Cuba, Egypt, British West Indies, Jamaica, Belgium, Sweden, Haiti, Argentina, Colombia, Japan and the Philippines.

WIDOW OF LATE OIL KING CALLED

Will Be Asked to Tell About Donations

HAMON SPENT $400,000

Told 'The Boys' He'd Take Care of Oklahoma

WASHINGTON, April 7.—The late Jake Hamon spent $400,000 for a "republican victory" in the election of Harding, J. B. French of Oklahoma City, friend of Hamon, told the senate oil committee today.

"When Jake came back from the 1920 convention I asked him if he was going to get into the cabinet," French said. "He told me that he would not, but he said, however, that he had spent too much money—about $400,000 for a Republican victory."

Calls Mrs. Hamon

Senator Walsh announced today that Mrs. Jake Hamon would be subpoenaed today and ordered to bring with her all bank books and records of expenditures made by her late husband and all bank checks made during the 1920 campaign and six months before.

In this way he hopes to establish the truth of the story of the "deal" story, in which her late husband is said to have bartered for the interior secretaryship.

Frank Ketch, former administrator of the Hamon estate, and William Miller also are to be called.

Miller Called

Miller, in charge of the Harding campaign in Oklahoma, is called in order to determine whether or not "Hamon paid the hotel expenses" of the Harding headquarters in Chicago. He was ordered to bring any records he may have that relate to convention expenses or expense at the convention.

The committee will not meet until Wednesday, the Tuesday session having been postponed in order that the committee members may attend other important meetings.

Indian Land Involved

The case involved an alleged procurement by the Miller brothers of 10,000 acres of Indian land valued at $500,000 through fraudulent means.

Walsh then put French on the stand and asked if Hamon had ever told him how much money he had spent at the Chicago convention.

French said that Hamon told him that he had given $20,000 to Mr. Harding's hotel bills.

"Who did he pay that money to?" Walsh asked.

Paid Bill Miller

"Bill Miller, former attorney general of Ohio and campaign manager for Harding in Oklahoma."

"How did he come to pay Mr. Harding's hotel bills?"

"I don't know."

"I told the boys I would take care of Oklahoma, Hamon told me," he continued.

Senator Spencer then began cross-questioning the witness.

"When did he say that Hamon paid Mr. Harding's hotel bills, you mean?"

"I mean the bills of his committee—his headquarters—not his personal bills."

Senator Stanford, Oregon, Republican, then asked how the $400,000 Hamon contribution was disbursed.

"It's bank checks, I think."

"Then there probably would be a record of his expenditures in Oklahoma banks?"

"I imagine so."

French was then dismissed.

TEXAS CO. IN I.-G.N. PROTEST

Opposes Sale of Railroad To Gulf Lines

TOWNS IN PROTEST

Texas Rail Commission Holds Hearing

AUSTIN, April 7.—Opposition, emphatic and pronounced, to the application of the Gulf Coast Lines for authority to purchase the stock of the International-Great Northern Railway, developed at the very opening of the hearing which was begun by the Texas Railroad commission today at request of the Interstate Commerce commission. Intervention after intervention was filed, coming from many towns in the International Great Northern territory. These include San Antonio, Austin, Palestine, Tyler, Terrell, Houston and at least ten towns in the Lower Rio Grande valley.

Other Lines Protest

Strong protest was entered by the San Antonio, Trade & Gulf railroad through its president, W. T. Eldridge, who is also at the head of the Sugarland industries and the Sugarland railroad.

The Texas Company gave notice of intervention, announcing that it holds several unpaid claims against the International Great Northern, including one for $323,407. Request was made that if the merger is allowed that the purchaser be made liable for these claims.

Many Attorneys Appear

The chambers of commerce and other commercial organizations in the various cities and towns protesting against the proposed merger are all represented by attorneys, some of them being the most prominent in Texas, including Judge Nelson Phillips, former chief justice of the supreme court, who is representing Palestine and Anderson county and Houston interests. Colonel Claude V. Burkhead appeared as counsel for the chambers of commerce of San Antonio and Austin and the Rio Grande Valley towns.

Adding Joy to Travel

No need for being bored by a trans-continental trip, if American railroads follow the innovation of the London & North Eastern Railway. It has added a movie car to the Scottish Express, its fastest train between London and Glasgow. Comfortable chairs, all facing one way, have been fitted into a darkened car. At one end is a screen big enough to carry the latest film successes. First-class passengers can buy a ticket and take in the show.

Proposed New Hotel For Port Arthur Will Be Explained Tonight

One of the major issues to come before the present administration of the Chamber of Commerce and Shipping is slated for discussion tonight in the regular directors meeting when the proposal to erect a hotel here will be taken up.

Proposal has been made to the directors of the organization that a San Antonio hotel organization erect a hotel here to be valued at $500,000 fully equipped.

The details of the plan will be placed before the directors tonight in writing for further discussion.

In addition to this major problem reports of the various committees will be read at tonight's meeting.

Leonard to Run For Tax Assessor

BEAUMONT, Texas, April 7.—A. L. Leonard will formally make his announcement as a candidate for the office of county tax assessor within a few days, he stated here this morning.

He has been in the office for the past 11 years as a deputy assessor and has lived in Jefferson county all his life.

$72,000 Deal Up

BEAUMONT, Texas, April 7.—Commissioners court met here this morning only long enough to pass the regular monthly bills and then adjourned until afternoon.

At the afternoon session a representative of the H. B. DeWitt company will appear before the court with reference to a contract for rebuilding the county for assessment purposes. A tentative contract was signed with the company for $72,000 for the work, but was later rescinded.

City Orders Strict Anchorage Charges

Before vessels drop anchor in the city ship for the future, they must receive a permit from the harbor master and pay their anchorage charge, when an amendment ordinance now being drawn by the city commission is adopted on final reading.

The ordinance was passed to second reading this morning.

An anchorage charge must be paid the city within 30 days, or the harbor master is authorized to sell any ship failing to do so.

Notice to this effect are to be posted in three conspicuous places over the city.

PROPERTY SALE SLATED TOMORROW

Final sale of property for taxes as advertised by the city will take place before the city hall at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning. G. K. Lomax, city tax collector, announced today.

Less than five per cent of the 1923 tax roll, or $21,157.20 yet remains to be collected. Total sum collected to date for the last tax period is $150,513.27, Lomax said.

Of taxes due in 1922 and preceding years, $13,786.13 remains to be paid.

FALL ACCUSED IN LAND FRAUD

Former Cabinet Officer Stopped Prosecutions

DAUGHERTY INVOLVED

Dropped Action Against Miller Brothers

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Former Secretary of Interior Fall called on a halt on prosecution of the Miller Brothers in Oklahoma Indian land fraud cases in which they were involved, according to a letter introduced in the record of the senate Daugherty investigating committee today.

Edward S. Booth, solicitor of the interior department, gave the committee a letter from Fall to Attorney General Daugherty dated April 10, 1921, in which Fall asked postponement of action against the Miller brothers until a later term of the Oklahoma court.

Fall wrote Daugherty that "the public interest would not be jeopardized by withholding the cases" until a later term, and said that Indian Commissioner Burke wanted to go over them.

Two days later, according to testimony of H. M. Peck, then United States district attorney in Oklahoma, was ordered by the department of justice to postpone the cases.

BANDIT ROBS DRUGSTORE HERE

Entering the Model Drug Store, in the 2800 block Procter street at 10:30 o'clock last night a hijacker secured $47 in cash when he held up the proprietor, clerk and a half dozen customers.

While J. J. Mill-leaf, proprietor, was checking up the money remaining in the cash register the bandit entered the front door and commanded those in the store to put their hands up.

W. D. Powell clerk and pharmacist was in the store at the time of the holdup as were four or five school boy customers. A faint description of the holdup man was secured, but no arrests have been made as yet.

Hughes Appointed To Improvement Board

Resignation of C. M. Dismukes from the improvement board and appointment of C. W. Hughes as his successor was approved by city commissioners during their regular session this morning at 11 o'clock.

The commission authorized the writting of a letter by the city clerk's office expressing regret at the resignation of Mr. Dismukes, and praising him for his service, and endorsed his suggestion that Mr. Hughes be named as his successor by making the appointment.

HE BOXES EARS FOR HIGHWAYMAN

YONKERS, N. Y.—George H. Zerk, 35, picked the wrong man when he selected Michael Zerk, 18, as his first holdup victim. Zerk took the highwayman's revolver away from him, boxed his ears and turned him over to a policeman.

Jitney Permit Ordinance Up In Commission

The long-awaited ordinance to permit the operation of jitneys in Port Arthur in competition with the street car company was given its first reading before city council today, but the documents was passed to Wednesday without action.

Dyeus Asks Delay

Judge A. W. Dyeus of corporation court appeared and requested that no action be taken by council until he had an opportunity to study the provisions, since his law firm had clients "among prospective jitney operators. The ordinance was then passed over.

Judge Dyeus then was designated by the mayor to consult with City Attorney Wistner in additional suggestions for including in the measure.

Set Maximum Fare

Among additional provisions which will be embodied in the ordinance, Mayor Logan said, was that setting the maximum fare at seven cents within the city limits and ten outside the city.

Wednesday the ordinance, with these and other additions, will be read before council preparatory to passage.

Butsell, the ordinance read today provides:

1. For becoming a law from and after May 1.
2. License fee and bond, license to be $25 and payable quarterly in advance.
3. Liability contract, policy of insurance or bond, executed by some solvent surety company authorized to do business in the state of Texas, or two personal sureties.
4. Ten thousand dollars to be paid in case two or more persons are injured on account of each vehicle so bonded and operated; $5,000 (Turn to page 2, column 2)

Commission Rescinds Lumber Contract

After the city had accepted the bid of Richards & Bean Lumber company for a carload of lumber to be used in repairing culverts and crossings throughout the city, commissioners rescinded in city hall this morning and rescinded their action, asserting it had been discovered the bid of the company concerned No. 1 material, while the city is seeking rough lumber.

Richards & Bean submitted a bid of $893.97 for the order.

The Builders' Lumber company, Port Arthur Lumber company and Martin Lumber company were others bidding for the order.

500 ATTEND NEWS MUSICAL

Talented Musicians Take Part in Service

An audience of between 500 and 600 Port Arthurians attended the Sixth Sunday Vesper Musicale presented by a number of musicians of the city Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the First M. E. church, Stillwell boulevard and Lake Shore drive, under the auspices of The Port Arthur News.

Proceeds of the free will offering taken at the musicale, totaling $22.33, was turned over to Rev. J. A. Thompson, superintendent of the Seamen's Church institute, to assist in carrying on work of ministering to the comfort and needs of seafaring men ashore in Port Arthur.

In keeping with the spirit of the Lenten season the vocal numbers on the program were all sacred selections. Two anthems were sung by the choir of the First M. E. church, South, under the direction of Miss Helen Crum, with Miss Ethel King as soloist. The aria, "He was Despair," from Handel's oratorio, "The Messiah," was given by Mrs. Clifford G. Hall, contralto, who sang with Mrs. H. L. Drake, soprano, the duet "Quis Ego?" from Handel's oratorio, "Sabbath Mater." A duet arrangement of the hymn, "Rock of Ages," set to the music of Schubert's "Serenade," was sung by Mrs. L. L. McGuire, soprano, and A. L. Foster, tenor.

The instrumental selections on the program were played by Miss Marie Brown, organist, who gave "Guardian Angel" (Gounod) as the prelude; "Intermezzo" (Rogers) for the offertory, and "Triumphal March," from "Nauman" (Costa), as the postlude; Frank W. Kerns, violinist, heard in a group of two numbers, "Largo," from "Nerax" (Handel), and "Evening Song" (Schumann); and the string quartet, comprised of Mrs. Neal D. Rader, first violinist; Edmond Holway, second violinist; Mrs. Laurella Burnham viola, and Frank W. Kerns, cello.

LAFAYETTE, La.—Word that his company will rebuild their rice plant with double capacity in anticipation of deep water facilities coming to Lake Charles, was issued by J. Alton Foster, treasurer and manager of the company, in connection with the plans of the company for rebuilding their plant which was recently destroyed by fire, causing a loss of $750,000. The loss to 70,000 bays of rice and the plant was covered by insurance.

LAFAYETTE, La.—Habetz Brothers have moved their market from the building adjoining Charles Fourney's place to the building across from J. and E. Well's office on Texas avenue, owned by H. H. Bull.

CROWLEY, La.—Rev. J. B. Williams, presiding elder of the Lake Charles district, will preach at the Sunday and will preach at the evening service of the Methodist church. He also will conduct the third quarterly conference here Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

CROWLEY, La.—Breaking 45 out of 50 single targets in the regular weekly shooting match here, Dr. H. L. Gardner was high man in the Crowley Gun club tournament.

LAFAYETTE, La.—Preparations for the opening of a new street in the northwestern part of Lafayette to connect with Scott road are being made following the adoption of a resolution by the city board of trustees authorizing the purchase of property from Mrs. E. R. Kennedy.

FRANKLIN, La.—At a meeting of the Pike Lodge here, the following officers were installed to serve for the ensuing year: A. J. Delahoussaye, exalted ruler; W. A. Moore, esteemed leading knight; G. P. Greep, loyal knight; Stanley Bendreux, 1371; J. A. Boudier, treasurer.

DEQUINCY, La.—A stave and heading mill is to be built in DeQuincy by Jeff Brown, of Alexandria, La., according to plans being made here. Brown is now investigating the amount of timber available in this section.

Thrill means simple living in all things. The secret of simple living is in saving money, health, energy and time. The people who succeed in life begin to practice thrift in youth. Thrift is a habit. Since you learn habits while young, children can practice thrift by learning to save part of their earnings, their clothes and by eating wisely.

We can be good Americans by saving money to build up our homes, by following the health rules and by saving all things so we can be comfortable in old age. This nation would be a greater nation if every one was thrifty. We should save so that we can take trips and so we can get a better education.

Thanks help us to save by keeping our money in them. They pay us interest to let them use our money. They have Christmas clubs and other devices inducing us to save.

M'ALBERT WILL GO WEDNESDAY

Tomorrow Night His Last
Appearance

McAlbert "the miracle man" will close his engagement here tomorrow night.

He announced today that he had found it impossible to delay his scheduled appearance in Houston Wednesday and therefore would have to cut short his appearance here at the Aladdin under auspices of the Y.M.C.A.

No more questions are being received by the "mystery man" in order that he may catch up with those already received. He said today that he would answer all those he now has except those which were signed only with the initials, it being his policy to answer only questions signed by the full name.

Today's answers to questions follow:

C. J. Q.—You will find it.
Mrs. T. R. L.—The boy will come home.
Sevens.—Your mother will do all she can for you.
K. D. V.—I advise you to keep your job.
W. H. B.—It was stolen.
Mr. L. C.—Try and you will come out all right.
Mrs. T. C. J.—You will find the pin in the closet in the bedroom on the floor.

W. A.—I would advise you to keep the car and she will come here.
Fred.—see you getting more money.
J. H. H.—see you getting better and doing better.

J. F.—You will get better of the tooth.
Mrs. T. Y. I.—Your son is not in danger. He will come home.

They will come all right.
K. V. F.—You will find the saw.
Mrs. V. K.—Your husband is all right and doing the right thing.

Mrs. D. V. K.—Your dog will get all right.
K. L. A.—Why not try and she will surprise you.
Mrs. T. Y. D.—That party will get all right.

Mrs. V. X. A.—Some day he will come home to you.
Mrs. L. C. U.—Your boy is on the ship and homeward bound.

Mr. G. D.—The boy was lost on the ship. They all went down.
Mrs. F. X. H.—That party will not pay you the money.

W. T. R.—It sure will be just that way.
V. F. S.—The party will not give up the ring. They have something on you.

Chas.—You just go ahead and you will come out all right.
H. D. Y.—I would advise you to hold the place.

Mrs. C. K. L.—The operation was a success and you will get all right.
Ar. S.—Your father is not well in the reason he wants you to come home.

Mrs. T. D. S.—I will be at the Aladdin Saturday and Sunday night and maybe Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, but not longer than Wednesday night now.

Mrs. C. K. X.—The girl will soon be out of the hospital.
Mrs. T.—The reason the party did that way was they did not care.

Mr. J. H. G.—You will realize on the estate.
Mrs. E. H.—You will get work.
G. B. G.—I see you leaving before long.

J. S.—I do not see a good sale just now.
Mrs. J. B. H.—I see you getting married when you want to.

M. G.—Your luck will be all right.
M. G.—I see you getting along all right.

Mr. R. B.—He lost the money.
Ar. C.—I would advise him to sell.

B. R. M.—Yes.
Ar. E.—I see you getting work soon.

Mrs. T. F. M.—You will.
Mrs. D. C.—Doesn't look so now.

V. S. G.—You will.
I. D.—You have not met your mate.

J. H. B.—You will be.
J. B. C.—The money was stolen.

Mrs. M. E.—I see you at least getting your money back.
Mrs. G. G.—The money was lost.

Mrs. C. W.—I see him getting better.
Mrs. O. H.—I see a sale for you.

M. J.—I see you finding the article.

article.
Mrs. G. F.—This will benefit you if you will guard your interest.
B. T. I.—Would not do this. It does mean now for you.

C. V.—The move is all right.
J. S.—He is true to you.

B. N.—You must forget the party. They mean nothing to you.
B. H. H.—Yes.

Mrs. G. W. E.—I would take him back. True love never dies.
R. W. D.—The position holds good things for your future.

C. M. S.—You will hear from the boy. He cares for you.
Mrs. G. W. B.—You will do all right and pay out.

Mrs. G. W. E.—I see you making good and coming out all right.
I. G. Q.—He is all right.

E. H.—There is nothing but what she can get rid of.
Mrs. S. J.—There is no more trouble. You can do just so much.

I. M. J.—I see you getting work.
S. A.—You will.

N. A. B.—I see you changing later for the best.
J. L. M.—I see you will get this.

M. G.—I would advise you to hold this land.
A. D.—It is there.

Mrs. P. M.—You will find the money.
P. G.—You will.

Mrs. E. C. H.—I would not advise him to do so.
Mrs. E. C. H.—I never give the names of people stealing things.

E. P. T.—You will.
E. H.—I see that you will get better.

Mrs. G. J.—You will succeed if you will hustle.
W. H. H.—I would advise you to stay here.

I. M. W.—You can if you will hustle. I am sorry of that year.
Mrs. T. C.—I will come before long.

M. T. T.—You will hear of him and from him through another party.
Mr. and Mrs. R. D. A.—I see an increase in the male element of your family.

E. H.—There is not. Don't fool with the G. D.—You would be better married.

Mrs. L. S. Q.—A cool climate would suit wonders for him in the summer time.
M. M.—You will see your son before long.

I. L. M.—She can get well if he will just try and take care of her self.
A. D. M.—They should, but he does not want to now.

M. L. P.—I would not try too hard as this party will not be anything to you.
Mrs. N. U.—The boy cares, but it will not do to pay any attention to him.

E. P. Q.—This claim should be allowed, and if you will keep trying you will get it.
B. T.—I would advise you to stay here.

Mrs. S. H.—He does care and will be all right.
H. W. N.—I see success in your trade.

Mrs. E. R.—I see success for you.
L. E. J.—A change for you for the best.

Mrs. I. K.—He is.
Mrs. D. M. G.—I see you getting better, so just let it ride.

Mrs. C. S.—You can have this as your wish.
Mrs. E. D. H.—You will win the girl, so go to it.

J. F. S.—Your business is all right. Save it for the present.

Mrs. T. E. G.—You will win in your battle.
Mrs. A. F. T.—You will get him from him.

Mrs. J. H. T.—He does not intend to pay you now.
A. M. D.—I see some success for you.

Mrs. I. W.—I see success for you in this with the proper location.
G. C.—He will be later, but don't marry unless you consult.

I see good things for you.
Mrs. W. C. W.—I see you getting better without.
K. E.—You will get all right with care.

J. J. W.—You would not.
S. M. E.—I do not see you getting this back.

Mrs. J. E.—I do not see you finding them.
Mrs. T. C. D.—Your health is all right. Just quit your worry.

H. C. A.—My opinion is you are to blame for all the trouble. The thing you want to do is treat others right, and they will run.

Mrs. Y. L. A.—Your boy is all right. He is doing all right.

Henry.—My oh my! but you are in wrong and all your fault. Why don't you listen to your mother and you would not be where you are now.

Mrs. D. V. J.—Tell the boy to let that thing alone. He will lose on it.
R. L. J.—Your party is gone for good, so you are not liable to get the money.

Mrs. C. X. Z.—You will get better under the doctor's treatment. Stay with him.
Mrs. L. C. K.—You better have that tooth taken out.

Mrs. T. C. K.—There is no use to worry, as that will not bring him back.
C. D. S.—Your sister is in Tucson, Arizona.

S. A. B.—Your business is coming fine. Stick to it.
H. G. F.—You will not lose your job. The lay off is only temporary.

Mrs. U. U.—The change in climate will do you good.
H. L. F.—You will get the money. Your party will not get it.

Mrs. C. V. S.—You can get what is coming to you by going after it.
Y. K.—You can do this.

This would be all right.
Y. K.—You could advise you to keep your position and advise you to keep it.

Mrs. C. M. A.—He does.
Miss F. H.—The party will write you.

L. S.—He does and will be all right. The lay off is only temporary.
H. L. Q.—I see you getting work a little later.

Mrs. T. C. K.—Your family will help you to help them.
Mrs. T. R. M.—She will make good.

E. M. M.—You can do this.
H. L. B.—The thing will come out all right.

Mrs. H. I.—I see you staying here.
Mrs. E. H. E.—I would take the trip.

Mrs. R. A. F.—I would advise you to go home.
E. B. J.—I see a change for you for the better.

Six Rescued From
Disabled Launch

Drifting away from docks at Sabine, and carried down across the channel nearby to the Sabine light house, a disabled launch with five or six passengers was towed back to Sabine by a motor boat sent out from the coast guard station Sunday, according to reports reaching Port Arthur today.

Noted Humorist Talks Here
Tonight

Ralph Bingham, said to be the premier fun-maker of the American platform, will hold the stage tonight at Chautauqua, at 8:15 o'clock.

"Bing" as he is affectionately called is versatile, and tonight's program includes some songs, and piano and violin stunts. Many persons know him through his Victor records, one of which "The Possum Hunt" will be presented by him tonight in addition to other numbers.

In 20 years on the platform he is said never to have failed to score. His 7,000 engagements include more return dates in more towns than any other humorist in the country.

Tonight's program will begin at 8:15 o'clock, the musical entertainment being given by the Ernest Gamble Concert Party, an ensemble of three high class artists.

The afternoon program being at 3 o'clock instead of 2:30 o'clock in order that school children may attend.

Too Much Trash For
Wagons Collected

Cleanup week found too much trash for the city to move away. That's what the mayor, J. D. Logan, said during commission meeting this morning in city hall.

So all trash that hasn't been removed, and all parts of the city that haven't been covered with the trucks being used, will be cared for this week.

The mayor said he thought three days of work in addition to the regular disposal of garbage would be required.

Saturday Bridge Club Given Delightful Party At Weatherall Home

MRS. TED WEATHERALL and Mrs. W. H. Davis entertained with an attractive bridge party Saturday afternoon at the former's home, 2727 Sixth street, three tables of players being assembled for the agreeable diversion. The personnel of guests included members of the Saturday Bridge Club.

The hostesses' selection of a pink and white motif to feature the charming affair was artistically displayed in the quantities of beautiful sweet peas and roses clustered in baskets and crystal bowls about the room. Bridge table appointments reflected the combined theme, and in the games Miss Ellen E. E. was awarded the prize for high score and Miss Grace Inman received the second favor.

A salad course, offered at the close of the games by the hostess, was enjoyed by Miss Carl Madigan, Mrs. C. W. Hurley, Jr., Mrs. Tom Hart, Mrs. David Boyce, Miss Louise McWhorter, Mrs. Sam MacFadden, Miss Ellen Eubank, Mrs. Willard Inhoff, Miss Doris Young, Mrs. Richard Allen, Mrs. Frank C. Harrell and Miss Grace Inman.

On next Saturday evening the club will entertain at dinner at the home of Miss Grace Inman, 1010 Procter street, hostesses including Miss Inman, Mrs. W. H. Elliott, Mrs. Frank C. Harrell, Mrs. Tom Hart, Miss Doris Young and Mrs. C. W. Hurley, Jr. Dinner will be served at 7 o'clock and bridge will give diversion during the evening hours.

BIRTHDAY PARTY GIVEN SATURDAY

The eighth birthday of little Miss Gertrude Noble was celebrated Saturday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Noble, 1321 New Orleans avenue.

Enjoyable games gave diversion for the little folks during the afternoon, following which refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Mrs. Noble was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Gay. The little honoree received many pretty gifts.

MISS JEAN WOLD IN AN AESTHETIC POSE WITH SKETCHES DEMONSTRATING THE "DANCE OF THE BROOM"

BY HAROLD MATSON The News Special Writer

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., April 7

A word to the wives: Bring on the dance and drive drudgery away forever.

Dance when you sweep, dance when you scrub, dance when you cook, and you will be healthy, happy and wise. Thus you make your housework an aesthetic pleasure, as conceived by Miss Jean Wold, teacher of classic dancing in Vassar College.

"Housework is drudgery because it lacks rhythm," declares Miss Wold. "The housewife can make her work a remedial exercise, a pleasure, and preserve her health and her beauty."

She says the spirit of the dance easily fits into the household.

"Housewives are worn out by their work," according to Miss Wold, "because their physical exertion is never done in completed movements. Muscles remain stiff, blood is not properly circulated and body tissues break down through lack of exercise of all of one's body."

Miss Wold declares that if women did their work to time of music they would bring all their body into play with no effort or time lost, but healthy exercise gained.

She says dancing movements can be used in bed-making, in sweeping, in scrubbing, in washing and in most everything a housewife has to do.

NOTICE:—

To Merchants Who Have Not Yet Signed Up for the Ten Trades and Bargain Days

Committees have made a strong effort to make a thorough canvass of the city, but the very nature of the work has made it impossible for them to see everyone and as the time is rapidly approaching when this list must be closed, in order to get advertising copy for the papers, and other preliminary things out of the way, we strongly urge every merchant desirous of participating in these Ten Days of Bargains to call Mr. A. L. Burge, Telephone 368, who will be glad to give you full information and take your name for participation in this event.

Ninety (90) of Port Arthur's merchants, representing every line of merchandise, have signed up for this event and we would like to have as many more as possible.

LETTER FROM LESLIE PRESCOTT TO PAULA PERIER

MY DEAR MISS PERIER:

I am sure you overrated what you generously call my kindness to you. If you enjoyed meeting me, you must also understand I enjoyed quite as much meeting one of the most popular young women in moving pictures.

We quiet home women always have much curiosity about the flaming genius which sets apart some of our sex, for the world's applause. We are apt, my dear Miss Perier, to minimize the trials, the tribulations, the sorrows, the loneliness and patience which I know you and every other successful artist must go through before the top rung of the ladder of fame is reached.

We perhaps envy you your success just as much as you envy us our homelife, our quiet domesticity and our children.

One thing I have learned, and I think that you know it as well—I cannot make my choice. She cannot have love and reverence of husband and children, and the joy and happiness of home, and also give herself to the world, through some great endeavor.

Sometimes this choice is unconscious and I think there comes a time in every woman's life, when she must make her choice. She cannot have love and reverence of husband and children, and the joy and happiness of home, and also give herself to the world, through some great endeavor.

There, my dear Miss Perier, I did not mean to be the least bit philosophical. I also intended to write a friendly, courteous letter, but there seems to be some peculiar bond between us.

From your letter I could see that you liked me and I want you to know that I think you are not only a great actress, but a very understanding and sympathetic woman.

I hope, some day, you will have that home in Hollywood for which you long, and I hope some day there will be children's voices in it, for I saw the great longing in your eyes as you held my baby in your arms. Some time, in the future, I hope we shall meet again. Until then will you let me sign myself

Your sincere friend,

LESLIE PRESCOTT.

HOW TO BE HEALTHY BY LILLIAN LEITZEL

LILLIAN LEITZEL

One of the most important parts of all exercising for health is relaxing. There are innumerable ways of doing it. No rule can be prescribed. It is all up to the individual. Find out some way of letting yourself go, some posture that will give you the most ease—and you'll be able to get the fullest benefit from your work.

I get my rest after each performance by going to a motion picture show, slouching down in their chairs, closing their eyes and forgetting their work. Others get it by lying down and reading.

Some persons get the same benefit by merely sinking down in their chairs, closing their eyes and forgetting their work. Others get it by lying down and reading.

But whatever the method, everyone should do this twice a day. The best time is just before eating. One gets little good from a meal eaten when tired. The idea that some persons have about slouching from their work, grabbing a sandwich, gulping it down and then rushing back again, may be well intentioned, but it is misdirected.

During the day, during the depression period which comes about 3 o'clock in the afternoon with most day workers, one should give himself a five-minute relaxation period. This time lost will easily be compensated for by the increased efficiency.

Most of this advice is old—but it is the old stuff, tried out by experience, that has been found to be the real thing.

Pastor Declares Delinquency of Port Arthur Children is Now Most Alarming

HOME IS ONLY PLACE TO PARK

So Says Rev. Yelderman To Large Congregation

"Too many children here look at home merely as a parking place; just a place to eat and sleep."

"Delinquency among the growing younger generation in Port Arthur is most alarming."

"Something is radically wrong when a boy 13, 14 years of age or older has to leave home and stay out late at night prowling around in the high life seeking 'fun' and 'entertainment.'"

"We need some new discoveries. We need some one to discover some new adjustments. Thousands of people in this city need adjustment—people here are not happy; fathers, mothers, sons and daughters are dissatisfied."

"The greatest sermon, the most gospel that can be preached is telling people how to be happy and live happily."

Decries Dissatisfaction

Decriing the growing dissatisfaction of the children of the present age, and pointing out the way to make home life happier, Rev. R. H. Yelderman, pastor of the First Christian church, made these assertions last night in opening his sermon on "The Ideal Home," delivered to a church filled to overflowing with an attentive audience.

Love, confidence, appreciation, children and God were ascribed as the essential factors of "The Ideal Home."

Women Describe Home

Excerpts from several letters, all written by women of this city, on "The Ideal Home" were read during the sermon. The letters pointed out that "the ideal home must have love paramount, must be a heaven on earth, that the man and wife should live as one, have confidence and faith in each other, that the wife should be thoroughly acquainted with domestic problems, that 'money' was not essential, and that 'Christianity' must be an important factor." One letter asserted that for the home to be ideal, the husband and wife must be of the same faith, that they must have "sympathy and understanding," and that they "should stay young with their children."

Without commenting upon the commendations from which he read, Rev. Yelderman took the text for his sermon from St. John, 14th chapter, 21 and all verses, which asserts: "In my father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also."

Need Readjustments

"The greatest machine in the world is the human machine," the minister said. "And I believe undoubtedly there is something wrong with humanity here in Port Arthur somewhere along the line; humanity needs readjustment everywhere."

"Fathers and wives have been warring and quarreling and quarreling with each other too much—so much they have paid little attention to their sons and daughters, and the children, growing up in dissension and dissatisfaction, are looking elsewhere for a home for their lives, and are getting the wrong kind of entertainment."

"I believe there is something wrong with the modern time."

Discussing the essentials that make an ideal home, the minister outlined his five chief points:

His Idea of Home

"You can't start a home and keep it going without love," he said. "It takes more than refrigerators and fire furniture and stores and appliances to make a home. Nobody expects a divorce when a man and a woman have been married for 20 years, where love grows richer, deeper, fuller as the years come and go. That was Robert Bruns' conception of life."

And there must be confidence to make an ideal home. The father and the wife must have confidence in each other and their children must have faith in them. It's a tragedy when a girl can't go to her mother and tell that mother her troubles; it's a tragedy when a son can't go to his father and tell that father his troubles. I wonder whether Port Arthur boys confide in their fathers. Friends, as a father, as a mother, be such a one that you will be the first your children will come to in the time of trouble."

"The ideal home needs appreciation. The mother, the father must appreciate each other; and they must appreciate their children. No home is really congenial or happy without a 'thank you' in it."

"Children make a home ideal. There isn't a mother or a father, if they are the right kind, that don't think their children are worth every cent they cost. A home ought to have children in it; it isn't much of a home without them."

And to make the home perfect—to make it complete—God must be there, too."

Plans to have the largest attendance at the Men's Bible class of the First Christian church on record next Sunday morning were announced from the pulpit of the church last night when Rev. R. H. Yelderman let it be known that the class plans to entertain between four and five hundred men of Port Arthur and Beaumont. A large attendance from the entire city is expected here.

The men will gather in Lions Park on Prentiss street at 8:15 Sunday morning, and to the tunes of martial music which will be played by a local band, will march down Prentiss to the church at 9 o'clock.

SIX WOMEN HELD ON VAGRANCY CHARGES

Raid last night on 520 West Eighth street by Beaumont Sergeants and Detectives resulted in the arrest of six women on charges of vagrancy. They will face trial in corporation court. The raid along with a number arrested in raids Friday, night by other police officers.

Guard Against "Flu" With Musterole

Influenza, Grippe and Pneumonia usually start with a cold. The moment you get these warning signs, get busy with good old Musterole. Musterole is a counter-irritant that relieves congestion (which is what a cold really is) and stimulates circulation. It has all the good qualities of the old-fashioned mustard plaster without the blister.

Just rub it on with your finger-tips. First you will feel a warm tingle as the healing ointment penetrates the pores, then a soothing, cooling sensation and quick relief.

Have Musterole handy for emergency use. It may prevent serious illness.

To Mothers: Musterole is now made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole. 35c and 65c in jars and tubes.

Prettiest Baby In Port Arthur Will Be Shown at Church

Who's got the prettiest baby in Port Arthur?

Rev. R. H. Yelderman is going to pick the prettiest baby in Port Arthur next Sunday night and put him or her on display in his pulpit in the First Christian church.

The minister announced last night that at his next Sunday evening service he wished every mother in the city to attend his church on that occasion and bring every child 2 years old or under along with them.

"And if you haven't got a child, borrow your neighbor's. I expect to have between three and four hundred babies in my church next Sunday night. I'm going to find the prettiest baby in all Port Arthur."

theater was presented before a large audience, and "His and His" of 1921 made a decided hit, judging from the number of encores with which the cast was forced to respond. The bill is unusually clean and wholesome, and the quartet, the blues singer and the dainty soloist, all received enthusiastic applause from their audience.

In connection with the Revue, seven reels of pictures are being shown, tonight and tomorrow night's picture being "Shirley Kaye" starring Clara Kimball Young. Only one performance is given each evening, the picture starting at 7:30 o'clock and the vaudeville at 8:30 o'clock.

AT THE LIBERTY
Ever since Lou Tellegen first came to this country as leading man for Sarah Bernhardt and witnessed a performance by Pauline Frederick he has had the secret longing to play opposite her either on the stage or before the camera. Strangely enough a similar ambition has remained the secret of Miss Frederick, who is a great admirer of Mr. Tellegen's work. Fate has kept the two apart until J. Stuart Blackton decided to pictureize Basil King's famous novel, "Let Not Man Put Asunder," shown at the Liberty theater today. Although Mr. Blackton was the means of these two great stars realizing their secret ambitions, he did not know that by engaging them he was acting as a "wish producer."

"Let Not Man Put Asunder" is a highly emotional novel that requires a hand picked cast. Of the hundreds of prominent screen players available, Pauline Frederick and Lou Tellegen were the only two who measured up to the characters drawn by Mr. King. They were, perhaps, the only players who could do justice to the theme and present upon the screen a document that would get under the skin.

Well Known Houston Young Lady Praises Merritone

A Conclusive Example of Merritone's Worth as A General Tonic

During the past week Miss Maurine Weeks, a well known young lady living at 2107 Lyons Avenue, Houston, Texas, in talking to one of the Merritone representatives was very high in her praise of Merritone as a general tonic. She said in part, "I was in a general run down condition, had lost weight, had no appetite at all and I suffered almost continually with severe pains in my back. The least thing would throw me into a bad sick headache. I was so nervous that at times I was really irritable."

A friend of mine had taken Merritone and kept insisting that I get a bottle and try it. Finally I did and I really believe it was one of the best things that ever happened to me for right away I began to feel better. Before I had finished the first bottle the pains in my back had disappeared. In a surprisingly short time my appetite had returned, my nervousness vanished and I haven't had a headache since taking the first few doses. I cannot say too much for your wonderful medicine."

The experience of Miss Weeks is like many others that we hear from daily. All over this section of the country people are talking about Merritone and the good work it is doing in bringing a people back to natural good health and well they might talk for Merritone is a natural remedy compounded entirely of the juices of roots, vegetables, herbs. It tones up the entire system, gently but persistently removing irregularities in the action of the stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels—bringing about normal functioning and enriching the blood.

Merritone is guaranteed to give you satisfaction or your money will be cheerfully refunded.

NO. 17 MISTER PUNCH HUNTS JUDY

"Did you see Judy and the baby?" he repeated.

"Did anybody see Judy and the baby?" asked Mister Punch. Mister Punch looked very funny, dressed in a sort of red and yellow gown, and a high peaked hat with tassels on the side.

"Did you see Judy and the baby?" he repeated. "I thought that after I'd thrown them out of the window they might come to Doofanny Land. Such queer people come here to live, and Judy was certainly a queer 'un."

Nancy and Nick looked at Mister Punch and then at Mister Fuzz Wuzz, and then at Mister Punch again. They didn't know a word he was talking about.

"If you do find Judy," said Mister Fuzz Wuzz, "what do you intend to do with her?"

"Oh! cried Mister Punch, the man, starting to his eyes, "I intend to give her my stick and let her be labor me for a while. I'm sorry I treated her so. I never meant to, but after Toby hit me on the nose I kind of got mixed up in my head and didn't know what I was doing. Do you want me to tell you about it?"

"Oh, yes!" cried both Twins eagerly. "Please do, Mister Punch. It sounds just fine."

"Other people's troubles always do," declared Mister Punch with a grimace. "But sit down and I'll begin at the beginning."

"One fine day I got ready to take Judy and the baby for a walk. Judy was my wife and the baby was our only child."

"Well, I waited and waited and waited, and every time I called to her to hurry up, she would call back, 'Just a minute, Mister Punch, just one more minute.'

"I was looking out of the window while I was waiting, and a showman passed with his dog. Toby, Toby saw me and, jumping up my stairs, he hit me right on my nose."

"Well, that made me awfully mad, so I hit him and threw him out of the window."

"I'm coming the showman, and he yelled, 'Why do you throw my dog Toby out of the window?' And wait that he gave me a good beating with a stick—this very stick I have in my hand."

"Well, I grabbed the stick and hit him and then threw him out of the window."

"Just then Judy came in with the baby and I guess I had gotten the habit, for I grabbed the baby and threw it out of the window, and next I beat poor Judy and threw her out, too! Oh, I was a terrible fellow!"

"After that I ran out, and knocked down everybody I met—a doctor and two policemen, and a whole lot of people, and they put me into jail; but I got out, and I've been hunting for Judy ever since. I want to tell her that I'm sorry. And I do hope the poor baby isn't hurt. It isn't good for babies to throw them out of the window."

"Well, I should like to help you, my dear Mister Punch," said Mister Fuzz Wuzz kindly. "But so far Mrs. Judy has not come to Doofanny Land. I'll ask the rag doll, and Mister Hinky Dinky, and the dancer and everybody, and I'll send you word if I hear anything."

"Thank you," said Mister Punch, marching stuffily away on his little wooden legs. "Thank you—thank you."

And away he went, tassels, cap, long stick and all.

CHILD'S STORY OF THE HUMAN RACE

By Uncle RAY

The City of Carthage
We must now leave Japan, China and India, so we can go back to the Mediterranean sea.

If we really made such a trip, it would be eight or ten thousand miles long and would take many days; but to do it in thought takes only an instant.

In the past we have spent quite a while in Egypt, Greece and other countries on the eastern end of the sea. From now on the center of power goes westward, and is mostly in Europe.

For a time, however, great power was wielded by a city in Africa. This city was Carthage, and it was located on the sea coast from Italy. Carthage was started by sailors and travelers from the city of Tyre in Phoenicia. Some of these men brought their wives along, and almost all kept the ideas of religion they had learned at home.

The chief god of the people of Carthage was called Baal. A statue of god is pictured. It is very queer to look at. Baal was the Carthaginian name for Marduk. You remember that Marduk was worshipped in the Land of Two Rivers.

A coin used by the people of Carthage is also shown. Notice that it coins were also without dates.

Next—Walls and Gates of Rome.

The chief god worshipped by the people of Carthage was Baal.

"I'll think that over," grinned Billy.

Billy Cut-out has grown an inch and developed a lot of muscle since you saw him last, otherwise, he's the same boy. Color his hair yellow, his face and arms and legs pink. Today he wears a blue wash suit with blue hands on his socks.

PROSPERITY

"Upon What Meat Doth This Our Caesar Feed, That He Is Grown So Great?"

Cassius asked that question more in scorn than from curiosity. And that same question has been asked, phrased differently, perhaps, regarding everyone who has achieved greatness. That same question can aptly be asked regarding a city. It might be changed:

*"On What Meat Must This Our Port Arthur Feed,
That It Shall Grow to Greatness?"*

It needs first of all to be fed upon the meat of CO-OPERATION. NO COMMONWEALTH EVER THRIVED ON THE HUSKS OF INDIFFERENCE OF ITS CITIZENSHIP.

No city can hope to grow greater than its business interests. And certainly, RED BLOODED PROSPERITY will not run pulsating through BUSINESS ARTERIES that are clogged with STAGNANT INDIFFERENCE

Local business depends upon local trade. You must support it. Otherwise it will not progress.

PORT ARTHUR MUST GO FORWARD OR BACKWARD

It cannot stand still. Such is the law of nature. It has been so from the beginning of Time. Support your local enterprises and watch business speed ahead. This, and this alone will enable Port Arthur to take its rightful place in the Sun.
